

Acknowledgment

The author wishes to emphasize, at the outset, that, although he is associated with the Secretariat of Unesco, whatever is expressed in this book represents his personal views and must, in no way, be construed as representing the views of the Organization.

He wishes to pay tribute to Dr. Luther H. Evans, Director-General of Unesco, without whose encouragement and permission this book would never have been written and published.

Thanks are due to many of his colleagues in the Secretariat of Unesco, particularly to Miss Grace Cowan, Miss Jill Mellett, Miss Pat Woods, Mrs. Henny Kirshon and Mrs. Gilberte Carter, for their help in the preparation of the manuscript; and to H. Leigh Farnell, Claude M. Berkeley and A. Howard Williams for their constructive suggestions.

He is also indebted to Professor Martin B. Dworkis, of New York University, for his valuable comments and criticism.
